BIDDING PROCEDURE

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court for cause shown or as otherwise determined by the Sales Agent in its sole discretion, to participate in the Bidding Process, each person (a "Potential Bidder") must deliver (unless previously delivered) to the Sales Agent:

- (i) A preliminary (non-binding) proposal regarding (i) the Assets sought to be acquired, (ii) purchase price range, (iii) the structure and financing of the transaction, (iv) any additional conditions that it may wish to impose, and (v) the nature and extent of additional due diligence it may wish to conduct; and
- (ii) A form of financial disclosure acceptable to the Sales Agent and its advisors demonstrating such Potential Bidder's ability to close a proposed transaction.

A Qualified Bidder is a Potential Bidder that delivers the documents described in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) above, whose financial information demonstrates the financial capability of the Potential Bidder to consummate the Sale, and that the Sales Agent determines is reasonably likely to submit a bona fide offer and to be able to consummate the Sale if selected as a Successful Bidder.

Within two business days after a Potential Bidder delivers all of the materials required by subparagraphs (i) and (ii) above, the Sales Agent shall determine, and shall notify the Potential Bidder, whether the Potential Bidder is a Qualified Bidder. At the same time that the Sales Agent notifies the Potential Bidder that it is a Qualified Bidder, the Sales Agent shall allow the Qualified Bidder to conduct any additional due diligence with respect to the Assets sought to be acquired as hereinafter provided.

Due Diligence

The Sales Agent shall afford each Qualified Bidder due diligence access to the Assets sought to be acquired. The Sales Agent will designate a representative to coordinate all reasonable requests for due diligence from such bidders. Bidders are advised to exercise their own discretion before relying on any information regarding the Assets provided by anyone other than the Sales Agent's representatives.

Bid Deadline

A Qualified Bidder that desires to make a bid shall deliver a written copy of its bid to Adam Reich, Michael Fox International, 9454 Wilshire Blvd., PH, Beverly Hills, CA 90212, (p) 310-248-2821, (f) 310-271-6201, not later than 4:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on April 12, 2002 (the "Bid Deadline"). The Sales Agent shall then distribute copies of the bids to the Chapter 7 trustee and secured creditor.

Bid Requirements

All bids must include the following documents (the "Required Bid Documents"):

- An executed copy of an asset purchase agreement in a form approved by the Sales Agent (the "Asset Purchase Agreement")
- A good faith deposit (the "Good Faith Deposit") in the form of a certified check (or other form acceptable to the Sales Agent in its sole discretion) payable to the Chapter 7 trustee in an amount equal to at least 15% of the value of such bid.
- One or more affidavits or declarations establishing the bidder's good faith, within the meaning of 11 USC § 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.
- Written evidence of a commitment for financing or other evidence of ability to consummate the proposed transaction satisfactory to the Sales Agent in its sole discretion. The Sales Agent will consider a bid only if the bid is on terms acceptable to the Sales Agent and not conditioned on other conditions unacceptable to the Sales Agent. A bid received from a Qualified Bidder that includes all of the Required Bid Documents and meets all of the above requirements is a "Qualified Bid."

Bid Protection

The Sales Agent may (but is not required to) offer, with the consent of the Chapter 7 trustee and secured lender but otherwise in its sole discretion, a termination or break-up fee, expense reimbursement or other incentives (the "Bid Protection") to induce a Potential Bidder to make a Qualified Bid that is an offer that is subject to no contingencies other than court approval of the offer and any other contingencies acceptable to the Sales Agent in its sole discretion (such an offer, a "Firm Offer"). Such termination fee and expense reimbursement shall not exceed 3% of the amount of the Qualified Bid and must reflect actual expenses incurred, and shall only be payable if a higher or otherwise better offer from another bidder is accepted and the party to whom such Bid Protection was provided was not in default of any of its obligations and was otherwise ready, willing and able to close on its proposed transaction. No party will be entitled to Bid Protection without a written agreement signed by the Sales Agent and the Qualified Bidder or the Chapter 7 trustee, which agreement explicitly sets forth the terms of such protection.

"As Is Where Is"

The sale of the Assets shall be on an "AS IS, WHERE IS" basis and without representations or warranties of any kind, nature or description by the Sales Agent, the Chapter 7 trustee, their agents or the bankruptcy estate except to the extent set forth in the applicable Asset Purchase Agreement of the successful Bidder as accepted by the Sales Agent.

Except as otherwise provided in such Agreement, all of the bankruptcy estate's right, title and interest in and to the Assets shall be sold free and clear of all pledges, liens, security interests, encumbrances, claims, charges, options and interests thereon and there against (collectively, the "Interests") in accordance with and to the full extent allowed under 11 U.S.C. § 363, with such Interests to attach to the net proceeds of the sale of the Assets.

Each Bidder shall be deemed to acknowledge and represent that it has had an opportunity to inspect and examine the Assets and to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Assets prior to making its offer, that it has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation and/or inspection of any documents and/or Assets in making its bid, and that it did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Assets or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith or the Auction, except as expressly stated in these Bidding Procedures, or as to the Successful Bidder, as expressly stated in its Asset Purchase Agreement.

Auction

After all Qualified Bids have been received, the Sales Agent shall conduct an auction (the "Auction") of the Assets. At the time of the Auction, no bid will be deemed to be a Qualified Bid, regardless of whether it was treated by the Sales Agent as a Qualified Bid prior to the date of the Auction, unless such bid constitutes a Firm Offer. The Auction shall take place at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on April 17, 2002 at the Donald Stuart Russell Federal Courthouse, 201 Magnolia Street, Spartanburg, SC, or such later time or other place as the Sales Agent shall notify all Qualified Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids. Only a Qualified Bidder who has previously submitted a Qualified Bid will be eligible to participate at the Auction.

At the Auction, all Qualified Bidders will have an opportunity to bid on the Assets. The minimum initial overbid for the Assets shall be in an amount that is not less than $100,000 more than the highest Qualified Bid. After the initial overbid, any subsequent bids for the Assets must be in an amount at least $10,000 more than the previous bid.

Upon conclusion of the Auction, the Sales Agent, in consultation with the Chapter 7 trustee and secured lender, shall (i) review each Qualified Bid on the basis of financial and contractual terms and the factors relevant to the sale process, including those factors affecting the speed and certainty of consummating the Sale, and (ii) identify the highest and otherwise best offer for the Assets (the "Successful Bid"). The Sales Agent shall then present the Successful Bid to the Bankruptcy Court. The Sales Agent may adopt rules for the bidding process at the Auction that in its judgment, will better promote the goals of the bidding process and that are not inconsistent with any of the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules, any Bankruptcy Court order, or these Bidding Procedures.

Rights of the Lender

GECC is deemed to be a Qualified Bidders and shall be (i) entitled to participate in the Auction without submitting any prior bid, notice or other document; (ii) entitled to exercise its individual or collective credit bid rights under 11 U.S.C. § 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iii) entitled to exercise such other rights and remedies as may be allowed by any order of the Bankruptcy Court or by its loan and security agreements.

Acceptance of Qualified Bids

The Sales Agent shall request authority to sell the Assets for the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid received as determined in the sole discretion of the Sales Agent after consultation with the Chapter 7 trustee and secured lender. The Sales Agent's presentation to the Bankruptcy Court for approval of a particular Qualified Bid does not constitute the Sales Agent's acceptance of the bid. The Sales Agent will be deemed to have accepted a bid only when the bid has been approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

If the Successful Bidder fails to consummate an approved sale because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder, then (i) the next higher or otherwise best Qualified Bid shall be deemed the Successful Bidder upon approval of the Court, (ii) the Sales Agent shall be authorized to effectuate such sale without further order of the Bankruptcy Court as long as the next higher bidder has complied with all terms set forth herein and does not deviate from the terms set forth herein, and (iii) the Good Faith Deposit of the initial Successful Bidder shall be retained by the Chapter 7 trustee as liquidated damages.

Return of Good Faith Deposit

Good Faith Deposits of all Qualified Bidders shall be held in escrow until 3 business days after the Sale Hearing, whereupon they shall promptly be repaid to all Qualified Bidders. The Good Faith Deposit of the Successful Bidder shall be applied to the purchase price of the Assets.

Modifications

The Sales Agent may determine, in its business judgment after consultation with the Chapter 7 trustee and secured creditor, which Qualified Bid, if any, is the highest or otherwise best offer; and may reject at any time before entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving a Qualified Bid, any bid that, in the Sales Agent's sole discretion, is (i) inadequate or insufficient, (ii) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of sale, or (iii) contrary to the best interests of the Chapter 7 trustee and the bankruptcy estate, and its creditors.

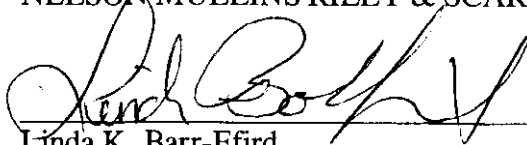

Applicant is informed and believes that it would be in the best interest of the estate to sell said property by public auction according to the terms and conditions set forth in this Notice. Applicant also believes that the funds to be recovered from the sale of said property justify the sale and the filing of this Application.

The Court may consider additional offers which comply with the requirements herein at any hearing held on this Application. The Court may order at any hearing on this Application that the Assets be sold to another party on more favorable terms which is in conformity with the bidding procedures established herein.

The Chapter 7 trustee may seek appropriate sanctions or other similar relief against any party filing a spurious objection to this Application.

WHEREFORE, the Chapter 7 trustee requests that the Court issue an order authorizing the sale of said property free and clear of all liens in the manner set forth herein and grant such and other further relief as the Court deems just and appropriate.
